I talked with Don when he brought this up. He apparently talked with Chuck or Mitchell who didn't encourage him very much. He says that he has no strong personal feeling one way or the other but inasmuch as DD/P has asked for relief from the summons, he is presenting it. If your experience this morning would indicate that it would be unwise for the Agency to request still another excuse from duty, then let it go. Under any circumstance, would you call Don on x2385 and let him know what happened.
